

Programme

Third International Laurence Sterne Foundation

Conference

War and Peace in the Age of Sterne

Venue: Het Literatuurhuis, Oudegracht 237, Utrecht,

The Netherlands

Thursday 31 October

- 1 p.m. registration
- 1.30 welcome by Peter de Voogd
- 1.45 - 2.30 David Pascoe, 'Sterne and that Dreary Double Entendre'
- 2.30 - 3 Richard Wallis, 'John Burton and Two Sternes'
- 3 - 3.30 tea
- 3.30 - 5 Joanna Maciulewicz, 'Ignacy Kracicki's The Adventures of Nicholas Wisdom (1776)'
- Artem Serebrennikov, 'Quixotic and Shandean Echos in Daniil Kharms' Rytsar'
- 5.30 – 7 drinks reception in Stadhouderslaan 72

Friday 1 November

- 9.30 – 1 Helen Williams, 'Jane Timbury and the Sentimental Mode'
Olivia Carpenter, 'Sancho, Locke, Slavery and Sterne'
Rebecca Barr, 'The History of Jack Connor and the Warfare
Picaresque'
- 11-11.30 coffee
- 11.30-12.30 Andrew Bricker, 'A Shandean History of the Press'
Ildiko Csengei, 'A Sentimental Journey and the Seven Years' War'
- 12.30-2 lunch
- 2-3 Spartaco Pupo, 'Sterne's Encounter with Hume and Wilkes in Paris'
Daniel Reed, 'Sterne's Professional Networks'
- 3-3.30 tea
- 3.30-5 Paul Goring (chair), Mary Newbould, Helen Williams, presentation CUL project.

drinks Literatuurhuis

6.30 conference dinner

Sterrekamer, in former Chapter House Utrecht Minster, Achter de Dom 7

Saturday 2 November

9.30-11 Peter Budrin, 'Laurence Sterne and Soviet Russia in the 1920s and 1930s'

Paul Goring, ' "[A]ll the rubbish of the 5th Act": Hamlet's Gravediggers in Eighteenth-Century Britain and France'

Elena Petrova, 'Sterne and Voltaire's Candide'

11-11.30 coffee

11.30-12.30 Flavio Gregori, 'The Life of an Editor can be a Warfare upon Earth: Editing and Commenting Tristram Shandy for Foreign Readers'

closure

